WILMINGTON, NC – McAngus Goudelock & Courie (MGC), a regional insurance law firm, is pleased to announce the addition of attorney Chamberlain Collier to their Wilmington office. Her practice focuses on commercial, construction and general litigation.

Collier graduated magna cum laude with a Juris Doctor from Campbell Law School, a Master of Arts from East Carolina University and a Bachelor of Arts from North Carolina State University. Before attending law school, she served with Teach for America as an Eastern North Carolina Corps member. Collier is a member of the North Carolina Bar Association, Wake County Bar Association, Campbell Law School Alumni Society and the American Bar Association. She is also a coach of the Campbell Law Mock Trial team.

McAngus Goudelock & Courie is a metrics-driven law built specifically to serve the insurance industry, their insureds and self-insureds. Past success does not indicate the likelihood of success in any future legal representation.
