

Allen Callison

Allen Callison represents insurers and insureds in all aspects of claims litigation, including auto, premises and products liability, as well as workers' compensation defense. His clients include large multinational manufacturers, trucking and logistics companies and convenience stores. Allen strives to provide clients with efficient outcomes, moving cases toward prompt settlement when able and preparing cases for trial when the need arises. Prior to joining MGC, he worked in both the Nashville and Atlanta markets representing insurers, employers and self-insured entities in both liability and workers' compensation matters.

Outside of the office, Allen enjoys spending time with his wife, twin boys and his dog, Ollie.
