Allen Callison represents gas stations, retail companies and trucking and logistics companies in the firm's Nashville office. He strives to provide clients with realistic expectations of costs of defending cases and potential value of a case on the front-end. Prior to joining MGC, he represented insurers, employers and self-insured entities in liability and workers' compensation defense matters in the Nashville area.

Outside of the office, Allen enjoys spending time with his wife Lindsay, twin boys Jack and Luke and dogs Milly and Ollie.
