

Brian M. Frame

Brian Frame's practice focuses on workers' compensation in the firm's Richmond office. He is dedicated to representing Virginia employers and their insurance carriers. He joined MGC in 2019 to assist in opening the Richmond office. He takes pride in providing intelligent advocacy for his clients through knowledgeable claim analysis, which considers both single-claim litigation and their organizations' business needs.

Outside of the office, Brian coaches varsity soccer at Maggie Walker High School. He is an avid reader and enjoys exploring the city with his dog Leo.
