Chelsea Phillips

CHARLESTON

Chelsea Phillips practices real estate law with MGC's Real Estate Law Group. She primarily handles buyers and sellers in real estate transactions in the firm's Summerville office. Chelsea strives to provide a smooth and stress-free closing process. Additionally, she understands that life can be busy and will work with her clients' schedules to get them through the closing process. Chelsea also believes it's important to ensure that her clients are comfortable with her as the closing attorney and feel they can reach-out to ask questions when needed.

Outside of the office, Chelsea enjoys spending time with her husband, Kyle, and her daughter, Kimber, as well as reading, watching college football and playing with her three dogs, Remi, Ellie and Leroy. She also has a bearded dragon named King Tyson II.
