

COVID-19: Multi-State Workers' Compensation Update

March 17, 2020

Media Contact

Powers Tanis
Director of Strategic Marketing and Communications 803.221.4907
email@mgclaw.com

Georgia | Updated May 12, 2020

Supreme Court Extends Declaration of Statewide Judicial Emergency Through June 12, 2020

Go to Page

Kentucky | Updated April 10, 2020

Department of Workers' Claims Cancels all In-Person Benefit Review Conferences and Formal Hearings Through May 17, 2020

Go to Page

Mississippi | Updated March 31, 2020

Commission to Remain Closed Through April 17, 2020, with Hearings Conducted Telephonically

Go to Page

North Carolina | Updated July 8, 2020

Industrial Commission Issues In-Person Hearing Guidelines

Go to Page

South Carolina | Updated May 18, 2020

Commission Issues Advisory Notice Regarding In-Person Hearings and Informal Conferences

Go to Page

Tennessee | Updated March 17, 2020

Court of Workers' Compensation Orders Expedited Hearings, Compensation Hearings and Mediations to Proceed as Scheduled, with the Exception of Settlement Approvals

Go to Page

Virginia | Updated June 12, 2020

Commission Announced Limited Availability for Full and Final Mediations, and Issued an Order to Return to In-Person Hearings

Go to Page