

Daniel W. Levin

For two decades, Daniel Levin has defended clients in insurance coverage matters, and has counseled major property-casualty insurers on coverage and claims-handling issues as both in-house and outside counsel.

Prior to joining MGC, Daniel was in-house counsel for a nationwide insurance company and handled litigation involving complex coverage issues, with an emphasis on coverage litigation arising out of underlying construction defect and mass tort property damage claims.

Outside of MGC, Daniel is a league bowler and a tournament chess player.
