

Gina M. Modica

KNOXVILLE, TN

Gina's practice focuses on general litigation, trucking and insurance coverage in the firm's Knoxville office. Prior to joining MGC, she was a prosecutorial intern for the Bedford Circuit Court 24th Judicial Circuit of Virginia and practiced general litigation, employment law, family law and estate planning. While studying law at Liberty University, Gina received a CALI Excellence for the Future Award® for Conflicts of Law.

"I believe communication and attention to detail are the keys to success," says Gina. "I want my clients to always feel free to call me directly, or email me, to inquire about their case. My clients should expect that their cases be handled with the utmost care and diligence, and that they will be communicated with at every stage of litigation."

Gina has traveled to thirteen countries and has played piano for over two decades. She's also actively included in Knoxville's chess community.
