ATLANTA, GEORGIA – Law firm McAngus Goudelock & Courie (MGC) is pleased to announce the addition of attorney Tameika Jackson to their Atlanta office, with a practice focused on construction litigation, motor vehicle litigation and premises liability. Jackson earned a Juris Doctor from Barry University School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Virginia.

Prior to joining MGC, Jackson was a public defender in Florida, served as staff counsel for an insurance company and, most recently, she practiced trucking and premises liability litigation at a firm in Atlanta. She is a member of the Atlanta Bar Association, Georgia Defense Lawyers Association and the State Bar of Georgia. Jackson is also a board member of the Pave Foundation and serves as chair of their governance committee.
