

Jasmyn Vaughn

NASHVILLE, TN

Jasmyn Vaughn's practice focuses on litigation, premises liability and motor vehicle litigation in MGC's Nashville office, where she represents insurance companies and employers. Jasmyn has extensive first and second chair trial experience, and recently won a complete defense verdict in General Sessions Court. She strives to provide realistic, direct legal advice and recommend the most efficient way forward for her clients. Jasmyn also teaches Legal Writing in the Nashville State Community College's Paralegal program.

Prior to joining MGC, Jasmyn practiced litigation and workers' compensation with a national insurance company and served on the Bureau of Workers' Compensation Appeals Board with the State of Tennessee.
