John Campbell practices general liability and commercial litigation in the firm's Atlanta office, with an emphasis on products liability, premises liability and catastrophic injury litigation. For over 28 years, he has represented manufacturers, retailers, property owners, self-insured entities and insurance carriers in cases throughout Georgia. John currently serves as statewide or regional litigation counsel for several Fortune 500 companies, including two elevator and escalator manufacturers, a national pharmacy retailer, a national transportation services company and several major insurance companies. John also serves on MGC's Trucking: Rapid Response Team.

John strives to focus early in each case on the best and most cost-efficient path to achieving a positive result for the client. As a result, his clients have come to expect an honest assessment of their position, timely reporting, efficiency in file handling and his best efforts as their chosen counsel.

Outside of the office, John spends time with his family, and enjoys golf, photography and trying to master the Big Green Egg.
