Julie Moose represents businesses, officers, directors, shareholders, accountants and other professionals, and insureds in litigation matters in the firm's Florence and Columbia offices. Julie's practice has focused primarily on business litigation, professional malpractice, shareholder disputes, and securities litigation. She has a wide range of experience which includes commercial litigation, professional liability, director and officer liability, construction litigation, coverage litigation, medical malpractice, nursing home liability, premises liability and products liability. With over 25 years of legal experience, and her experience as a licensed certified public accountant from 1986 to 2005, Julie understands economic and financial issues as well as the importance of reaching a beneficial and efficient resolution to any dispute.

Julie and her husband, David, have two children. Outside of MGC, she can be found spending time at the beach, boating on the intercoastal waterway, spending time with her black labs and gardening.
