

Lauren M. Poole

Lauren Poole’s practice focuses on general litigation and worker’s compensation defense in the firm’s Nashville office. She strives to provide legal services for her clients that she would expect as a client herself.

Prior to joining MGC, Lauren practiced in the area of complex civil litigation, including insurance defense, creditors’ rights litigation, estate representation as well as state and federal trademarks. She currently serves as the co-editor of the Nashville Bar Journal and sits on the board of Turnip Green Creative Reuse.

When she is not busy working hard for her clients, she enjoys yoga, art and travel.
