Leah Meares

ASHEVILLE, NC

Leah's practice focuses on workers' compensation matters in the firm's Asheville office. Prior to joining MGC, she was the Assistant District Attorney for McDowell County in North Carolina where she was a prosecutor for juvenile, district and traffic court. Leah also previously practiced real estate law.

Leah understands the importance of maintaining direct and responsive communication with clients. "I strive to return all communication within a 24-hour period," she adds.

Outside of MGC, Leah enjoys hiking, spending time with her children and exploring western North Carolina.
