

Mark Edwards

Mark's practice focuses on civil litigation in the firm's Atlanta office. Prior to joining MGC, he represented a variety of clients in the areas of criminal law, community association law and insurance law. Mark says, "I try to empathize with my clients, whether they are an employee of a large corporation or an individual person who is going through the litigation process for the first time."

Outside of the office, Mark enjoys spending time with his wife in addition to playing golf, tennis and basketball.
