McAngus Goudelock and Courie has been ranked #8 in the Large Employer Category in South Carolina as one of the Best Places to Work by SCBiz, in partnership with the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce and Best Companies Group.

This survey and awards program was designed to identify, recognize and honor the best employers in the state of South Carolina, benefitting the state's economy, workforce and businesses. The list is made up of 40 companies.

"We are happy once again to be recognized as one of South Carolina's Best Places to Work," said Jay Courie, MG&C's Managing Member. "It is a true credit to our people and the MGC culture they have created over the last 18 years."

To be considered for participation, companies had to fulfill the following eligibility requirements:

- Be a for-profit or not-for-profit business or government entity
- Be a publicly or privately held business
- Have a facility in the state of South Carolina
- Have a minimum of 15 employees working in the state of South Carolina
- Be in business a minimum of one year

Companies from across the state entered the two-part survey process to determine the Best Places to Work in South Carolina. The first part consisted of evaluating each nominated company's workplace policies, practices, philosophy, systems, and demographics. The second part consisted of an employee survey to measure the employee experience. The combined scores determined the top companies and the final ranking. Best Companies Group managed the overall registration and survey process, analyzed the data, and determined the final rankings.

The ranked companies were recognized at a special awards ceremony, presented by Jackson Lewis LLP, in October 2013 and the rankings will be published in the December 2013 issue of SCBiz.
