

Melissa R. Cleary

Melissa Cleary's practice focuses exclusively on workers' compensation. She is a Board Certified Specialist in Workers' Compensation Law and the first female defense attorney in North Carolina to be inducted into the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers. In addition to her many appearances before the North Carolina Industrial Commission, Melissa has handled cases before the North Carolina Court of Appeals, the North Carolina Supreme Court and the EEOC.

One of the benefits of handling cases since the mid-1990s is that Melissa has learned that there are many ways to look at an issue. Each client's needs are different. Melissa tailors her approach to meet the specific concerns of her clients and would never fall back on a one-size-fits-all approach. Melissa's favorite aspect of her work is the opportunity it provides her to support her clients as they deal with the workers' compensation system. In addition, she loves learning about different businesses, jobs and industries and the passion her clients have about their work.

Outside of the office, Melissa enjoys working with animal rescue groups, playing tennis and listening to podcasts, especially "We Can Do Hard Things."
