Meredith Thompson represents insurance companies and employers in workers' compensation matters in the firm's Atlanta office. Prior to joining MGC, she practiced workers' compensation and worked as an ethics and compliance team legal extern with The Coca Cola Company.

Meredith values open communication between clients and devotes as much time as necessary to fully meet their needs. From this open communication, she tries to creatively problem-solve so that their goals are met.

Outside of the office, Meredith likes to spend time with her husband Josh and their two dogs, Higgins and Lucy. She also enjoys cooking, planning events, hiking, photography, Georgia football, reading fiction and spending time with her family.
