

Miles T. Martindale

Miles' practice focuses on various litigation matters in MGC's Nashville office, bringing nearly half a decade of insurance defense experience to the firm. He also handles administration probate, litigation probate, wills and estates as well as non-compete law. In Miles' representation, communication is key; he is adamant on maintaining his responsiveness and keeping clients involved regarding developments in their cases.

Outside of MGC, Miles enjoys spending time with his wife (Brooke), daughter (Molly Palmer), son (Wells) and their dog (Tucker). He's also an avid golfer, and a fan of the Tennessee Vols, Tennessee Titans and Nashville Predators.
