Monica Bracey Towle

BOSTON, MA

Monica Towle's practice focuses on insurance coverage, professional liability and litigation in MGC's Boston office. For nearly a decade, Monica has dedicated her practice to insurance litigation and coverage, and regularly represents clients in state and federal courts during all phases of litigation. Over the years, she has evaluated coverage issues under the laws of dozens of states, with a particular focus on claims in South Carolina and Massachusetts. Monica represents businesses, insurers and professionals in commercial litigation, business litigation, professional liability, construction litigation, products liability, general liability and corporate law.

Monica's representation is client-oriented and outcome-driven. "My clients' goals are my goals," she says. "I strive to go above and beyond to understand my clients' unique needs, minimize their risk of exposure and provide dedicated advocacy and advice."

While studying at University of South Carolina School of Law, Monica was an active member of the Moot Court Bar and Mock Trial Bar. Upon graduating, she served as an alumni coach helping future attorneys build practical experiences and skills. Monica continues to regularly volunteer her time serving as a judge at various trial competitions.

Outside of MGC, Monica enjoys spending time outdoors with her family, playing board games and diving into true crime stories.
