

Moser Elected Vice-President of Kids' Chance of South Carolina

January 7, 2020

Media Contact

Powers Tanis
Director of Strategic Marketing and Communications 803.221.4907
email@mgclaw.com

COLUMBIA, SC – Attorney Matt Moser in MGC's Columbia office was recently elected vice-president of Kids' Chance of South Carolina. The Kids' Chance of South Carolina Board of Directors, comprised of volunteers representing various industries, provides guidance and oversight on all levels of organizational activity.

Matt Moser has been practicing law for almost a decade, and focuses on workers' compensation defense at MGC. He received his Juris Doctor degree from the University of South Carolina and Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. Moser is a member of the South Carolina Bar Association's Young Lawyers Division.

Kids' Chance of South Carolina, Inc. is a 501(C)3 organization and was founded in 1992 by members of the workers' compensation community. For over 25 years, Kids' Chance of South Carolina has proudly made a significant difference in the lives of affected South Carolina families by providing scholarship support to help eligible students pursue and achieve their educational goals. Since 1995, nearly 500 scholarships have been awarded totaling $1,037,678.73.