NASHVILLE, TN – Law firm McAngus Goudelock & Courie (MGC) is proud to announce that Nashville attorney Olivia Park has been selected for the Tennessee Bar Association's \(TBA\) Leadership Law's 22nd class. The TBA Leadership Law program aims to serve the legal profession by equipping participants with the vision, knowledge and skills necessary to serve as leaders in the profession and in the community as a whole. The class met for its first session in January and is spending the following six months learning about leadership in the legal profession, issues in the courts, policymaking in state government and the importance of community service.

Park's practice focuses on general litigation matters. She earned a Juris Doctor from the University of South Carolina School of Law and a Bachelor of Science from the University of South Florida. Park is a member of the Nashville Bar Association, Lawyer's Association for Women and the Tennessee Bar Association.

The Tennessee Bar Association is the largest professional association in Tennessee with nearly 14,000 members. Founded in 1881, the TBA represents the entire spectrum of the legal profession in Tennessee and beyond and is dedicated to enhancing fellowship and professionalism among the members of Tennessee's legal community.
