

Samuel L. Key

Samuel's practice focuses on general litigation, personal injury and construction defect claims in the firm's Columbia office. "More door is always open," he says. Prior to joining MGC, Samuel was a law clerk to the Honorable George C. James, Jr. of the South Carolina Judicial Department and assistant attorney general with the Office of the South Carolina Attorney General. He also practiced general litigation and medical malpractice defense at a Columbia firm.

Outside of MGC, Samuel enjoys spending time with my wife, Cristina, and two sons, Nolan and Callum, as well as cheering on the South Carolina Gamecocks.
