ATLANTA, GA – Attorney Kristine Snyder has joined law firm McAngus Goudelock & Courie's (MGC) Atlanta office. With a practice focused on general litigation, Snyder represents individual defendants, businesses and insurance companies. She earned a Juris Doctor from the University of Memphis Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law and a Bachelor of Arts from the University of Memphis. For the last decade, Snyder has handled insurance litigation, medical malpractice litigation and complex workers' compensation cases across state and federal courts.

While earning her Juris Doctor at the University of Memphis, Snyder was a licensed student attorney with the Shelby County District Attorney General's White Collar Crimes Division, where she served as second chair in a tax fraud prosecution, as well as the Child and Family Litigation Clinic in conjunction with the School of Law, where she tried cases of child abuse/neglect in Juvenile Court.
